

COMPANY PROFILE

Word Nerd Editorial is the one-stop shop for all of your editing, writing and proofreading needs. Owned and operated by Tamryn Spruill, a New York City journalist with more than ten years of editorial experience, Word Nerd Editorial prides itself on fast turnaround and superior quality.

Ms. Spruill founded Word Nerd Editorial in 2007 due to a demand for her editorial services, generated by word-of-mouth recommendations. Ms. Spruill brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to Word Nerd Editorial. Her past employers include RR Donnelley Financial, Business Wire, Delo Publications and Thacher, Proffitt & Wood LLP. Today, Word Nerd Editorial proudly services a client list that includes a Forbes-owned media company and several small businesses.

Word Nerd Editorial is staffed by a team of talented editors, writers and proofreaders whose mission it is to service your projects meticulously and on time, thus, upholding the Word Nerd Editorial standard of excellence.

“My commitment is to provide superior service on every project,” Tamryn Spruill said. “My team is not satisfied until every “t” is crossed and every “i” is dotted. That is the nature of this business.”

At Word Nerd Editorial, we’re nerdy by nature so you don’t have to be!
